Fourth International Journalism Award

“RACCONTAMI L’UMBRIA”

STORIES ON UMBRIA

Year 2013

ANNOUNCEMENT - RULES

The Perugia and Terni Chambers of Commerce hereby announce the Fourth “Stories on Umbria” international journalism award.

The competition is open to articles and television features about the region’s artistic, cultural and environmental treasures and its high quality economic and production system, that generate positive media exposure for Umbria and its products in Italy and the world.

Rules

1. Participation in the competition is free of charge and implies the acceptance of these rules.
2. The award is divided into three distinct categories:
 - Print: photographic-journalistic articles published in national or international newspapers or periodicals, between 1 January 2012 and 28 February 2013;
 - Television: features broadcast between 1 January 2012 and 28 February 2013;
 - Web: articles published in online publications between 1 January 2012 and 28 February 2013;
3. The articles or television features may be produced by a single journalist or by a team of journalists. Each journalist may submit up to two entries to the award organisers.
4. The articles and television features must be submitted together with the participation form, properly filled out and signed, along with a brief curriculum vitae of the journalist, by 15 March 2013, to the competition’s organisation office: Camera di Commercio di Perugia, Ufficio Stampa e Comunicazione, Via Cacciatori delle Alpi, 42 - 06121 Perugia - Italy, email: urp@pg.camcom.it. Articles or features submitted without specifying the name of the journalist will be credited to the managing director of the media outlet where the article or feature appears.

5. Print Category

Award Amount € 2,500.

Photographic-journalistic articles published in national or international newspapers or periodicals between 1 January 2012 and 28 February 2013 may be submitted. The article must be sent together with a copy of the newspaper or periodical it was published in (alternatively, a copy of the newspaper or periodical in PDF format may also be submitted via e-mail).

6. Television category

Award Amount € 2,500.

Features broadcast between 1 January 2012 and 28 February 2013 on national or satellite networks may be submitted. The features must be sent together with a summary in either the Italian or English language.

7. Web category

Award Amount € 2,500.

Articles published in national or international online publications between 1 January 2012 and 28 February 2013 may be submitted.

8. The articles and television features will be examined by a panel appointed by the Perugia and Terni Chambers of Commerce, made up of experts in the competition's subject matter.

9. Articles and television features nominated by any individual judge of the panel may also participate in the competition and be subject to the panel's examination, as long as produced in accordance with the provisions of these rules.

9 bis. The same article/feature cannot be submitted for more than one edition of the award.

10. The articles and television features will be evaluated according to the following general criteria:

- the ability to link issues of territorial interest with local businesses, with a special focus on the finest products and services that Umbria has to offer;
- the originality of the themes presented;
- the wealth of information.

11. The panel, the decision of which is final, will select, for each of the three categories, a shortlist of the 3 entries nominated for the award that exemplify the objectives and spirit of the competition. The finalists in each category will be invited to participate in the award
